My database contains the following information about Fredrick Syphrett (pick your spelling) and the decendent. I would absolutely LOVE to swap any further information I have on the decendents of Jane D Syfrette for any information you have about George Ezekiel Dukes, et al.

Mr. Swygert,
I have a number of Swygert's in my database but not as a family. A Gartman married a Swyger in about 1760 in Lexington Co. SC; A Rev. Michael Smoak married Ann Margaret Swygert about 1800; and, Margaret Hallman (Holman) m. Christian Swygert; and Ozre Halt Swygert ect. But, I don't have relation-ship. Some of our researchers on this Orangeburgh German-Swiss list may be able to help. We have a number interested in the "Dutch Fork" families.
Also, the Lexington Genealogical Association has a home-page at:

If you would like to join our group, send us a little info about yourself, your families researching, time frame, your snail mail address, etc. Of course, you are on a "pay-for" message system so let us know.

I am researching Swicord, Swigert, Swygert, and believe they came from Germany. The Imigrant list from the ship Elizabeth, arrived in Charleston in 1752, had a John Swygart and wife with 3 children, Anna Mary, John George, and Anna Barbara.
The passenger list from the Ship Upton,arriving in 1752 , had a Hans Michael Swagart on board.
The passenger list from the snow Priscilla, arriving in 1754, had John Swaygart and wife with 2 children, John Martin And Margaretta.
Any help you can give will be sincerely appreciated. I have been researching my line of Swygerts for about 7 yrs and have come up with a dead end. I can go back to Christian Swygert who married Margaret Hallman. I have their descendents pretty much under control. Its the ancestors and how they tie together thats a thorn in my side. Ha Ha

I wish I could help. You are not alone in desiring to see some of Christine's source material. I talked to Harold Syphrett at the Feb. 17th Board meeting. He is busy, but he displayed two Syphrett Genealogy books published (one Florida line, one Alabama line, I believe) as a result of his early Syphrett book. Don't know is he has good documentation or not.

Gene and others,

I continue to search for the Ann C. Syphrett who supposedly married George Ezekial Dukes about 1826 or 1827. So far the results have been fairly negative, so I'm hoping someone can help.

As far as I can tell, Christine Weaver Shuler is the source of the information that Ann. C. Dukes was originally a Syphrett. Does anyone know where she got that information? It isn't referenced in her OGSGS lineage chart or her Dukes lineage in her Shuler history. She also identifies Ann's father as Frederick Syphrett. At present that doesn't look likely to me.

I've gotten tons of Syphrett information from Lois Danley in Florida. I've also written to Rev. Syphrett, although no response yet. However, in the tons of Syphrett data that I have the will of Frederick Syphrett is included. No Ann C. and no George E. Dukes. He includes a large number of people, and Ann and George were alive long after his death. Either they were badly estranged at the time of his death or Ann wasn't his daughter. Also, Ann and George had 11 known children, none named Frederick. Also, no Elizabeth among the girls. I just don't think Ann C. Dukes was a daughter of Frederick and Elizabeth Syphrett.

There are two Syphrett possibilities for Ann's father in the census, "D.
Syphrett" in the 1810 census and John Syphrett in the same year. Unfortunately

LYNN TEAGUE, 06:46 PM 3/11/96 , Syphretts there is a Syphrett shortage in the 1820 census, making them hard to track. I think 1820 was a bad year for the Orangeburgh census. The Avingers are also missing in 1820, which is like losing an elephant in your house.

However, I also note that in the tons of Syphrett info sent by Lois there is no reference at all, anywhere, to a marriage between an Ann Syphrett and a George Ezekial Dukes. Since the material Lois sent reflects a great deal of research, it makes me wonder how the marriage could have been missed if there is actually a record somewhere. So, In wonder if Ann C. Dukes was a Syphrett at all.

I would appreciate any help on this, any ideas about where the original references came from, and so forth. I know it isn't Ann's burial monument in the Dukes cemetery near St. George; that just says "Ann C. Dukes" and her dates (10 Oct 1809-14 Oct 1881).

In short . . . . help, I'm drowning in Syphretts and not a one to confidently put on my lineage chart!
